ORDER VACATING THE COURT’S ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO STRIKE AND DIRECTING THE PARTIES TO FILE A STATUS REPORT

Before the Court is the Court’s Order Denying Plaintiff’s Motion to Strike (“the Order”) (D.E. # 55), filed on May 21, 2012. At the parties’ request, the Court held a status conference on August 2, 2012. At the conference, the parties indicated that they had reached an agreement which “probably” would fully resolve the case, but the agreement is contingent upon the vacation of the Order. The Court finds that vacation of the Order is necessary to timely resolve this case and to properly appropriate judicial resources. Accordingly, the Order is hereby VACATED to permit the parties to attempt to settle the case. Although such a procedure is rare and a bit unorthodox, the Court finds that it is the best use of resources under the circumstances. The parties shall report to the Court on the record within fourteen (14) days of entry of this Order the progress of their settlement negotiations. The Court reserves the right to reinstate the Order should the parties’ settlement negotiations prove unsuccessful.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
